

HANS WOLFGANG KUNZ
Member of the Management Board of
Giesecke & Devrient
GmbH.
CEO of Veridos GmbH

Hans Wolfgang Kunz has served on the Giesecke & Devrient (G&D) Group Management Board since 1996.

He began his professional career in 1979 as assistant to the Management Board at the Georg Westermann publishing house in Brunswick. In 1982 he joined the sales department of the Giesecke & Devrient Group in Munich. Only shortly afterwards, he became sales executive for the product group Banknote Processing Systems, as which he expanded the company's international operations. In 1988 he advanced to head of the Sales department for Banknote Processing Systems. When the company was reorganized in 1993, he took charge of the Sales and Marketing section of Banknote Processing Systems.

In 1996 Hans Wolfgang Kunz was nominated as a member of the Management Board with the responsibility for the Business Unit Currency Automation and Services. Since January 2006, he has taken over responsibility for the Government Solutions business unit at G&D. This includes both secunet Security Networks AG, in which G&D holds a controlling interest, and as of 2015 also Veridos GmbH, in which G&D is the majority shareholder and which succeeds the G&D division Government Solutions. The unit covers all security-relevant products and solutions for governments and public authorities, such as passport systems, visa systems, ID systems and card-based healthcare systems, e-government solutions, and IT security.
