

DIETER STRAUB
Head of Corporate &
Bank Unit, Investment
Team for Greece,
European
Investment Bank (EIB)

After completing his vocational training in banking (“Bankkaufmann, Sparkasse Ulm”) and military service Dieter Straub studied Finance&Accounting (Dual Bachelor Degree, Leeds University & Hochschule Bremen) and International Management (MBA, Golden Gate University, San Francisco) and joined Citibank Frankfurt’s Corporate Banking Team as Management Associate.

Following eight years in various capacities in lending and credit with Citibank, including two years at Citibank London, Dieter joined the European Investment Bank’s (“EIB”) Credit Risk Department in 2002. After the first three years in credit Dieter joined EIB’s UK private sector lending team as relationship manager and subsequently Dieter joined EIB’s German private sector lending team. Since August 2017 Dieter has been working at EIB’s head office in Luxembourg, being part of the Bank’s Investment Team for Greece with responsibility for the Corporates and Banks Unit.