

Dionysis Papadopoulos
CFO & Vice President | Siemens Healthineers Greece

Dionysis Papadopoulos is a senior executive with more than 25 years of experience in financial management, strategic planning, and business leadership within the medical technology industry.

Since 2016, he has served as Chief Financial Officer and Vice President of Siemens Healthineers Greece, with a proven track record of delivering strong financial performance by transforming financial strategy into tangible business value and sustainable growth.

Throughout his long career within the Siemens Group, he has held senior leadership roles in finance, controlling, and business operations. He has served as Chief Financial Officer & Vice Chairman of the Board at Siemens Healthineers (2025-2026), Siemens Healthcare (2017-2025) and Siemens Diagnostics (2011–2016), Country Division Controller in the Healthcare sector (2008–2011), and Business Administration Manager in the Medical and Telecommunications businesses at Siemens AE (1997–2008).

He has also served as a Board Member in group companies, including Recycling Appliances A.E. and Siemens Medical Solutions Diagnostics.

His expertise focuses on strategic financial planning, risk management, operational efficiency, capital management, and mergers & acquisitions. He has led cross-functional teams and complex transformation programs, achieving significant synergies, cost optimization, and profitability improvements.

Guided by Siemens Healthineers' purpose — "We pioneer breakthroughs in healthcare for everyone. Everywhere. Sustainably." — and inspired by its unique strengths, he is committed to fostering a culture of growth, continuous development, and the attraction of highly skilled and talented professionals.

He currently serves as a Member of the Board of the German-Hellenic Chamber of Industry and Commerce since June 2025. In addition, since January 2022 he has been a Member of its Healthcare Committee, contributing to initiatives that promote innovation, collaboration, and development in the Healthcare sector.

He holds a Master in International Business Administration (MIBA) from the University of Lyon, is a graduate of the Kaufmännische Stammhauslehre in Industrial Business Administration & Finance and has completed the ALBA Management Program (S4), further strengthening his leadership and strategic management capabilities.
